The Lindenwold Police Department
2001 Egg Harbor Road
Lindenwold, New Jersey 08021
Attn: Chief of Police

Dear Chief:

"It is a good thing to give thanks and to sing praises unto the Lord most high". I wholeheartedly agree with the Psalmist who pinned that passage in the Bible (Psalm 92:1).

I pin this communication today with an attitude of gratitude for the excellent, timely, professional matter in which the Lindenwold Police, and I believe the Fire Department responded to the missing person from the Landings which occurred on Wednesday, March 29, 2023. It was truly an alarming situation, but your team helped, not only, bring some calm, but also most importantly, they found the missing resident safe and unharmed.

Thank you for having such compassionate, caring staff, and for the immediate response to the emergency call. I do not know the resident but certainly cared for her safe return, as all of you.

If something was wrong, it would be noted, I, therefore, take this opportunity to commend each and every one for their part and help in locating that missing lady. We were first hand witnesses of how the situation was handled. My neighbors share the same concern, sentiment and signs this letter along with me.

You put your lives on the line each and every day for mankind, and we wanted you to know it is not taken lightly or for granted. We pray God's angels protect, each one of you daily, as you serve humanity.

Appreciatively,
